"Best Wearing Shoes in America for the Price."

Proud But Not Vain. We Shall Continue to Be Shoers of the Masses.

OR the splendid evation the good citizens of Washington extended to our enterprise occasion of the opening of our New Shoe Corner last night, we express our sincerest and most heartfelt thanks.

We regret exceedingly that owing to the unprecedented crowds so many of our friends were unable to gain admittance to our building, and many of them were subjected to discomforts in the terrible crush that ensued.

It was a memorable occasion for us. However, your applause shall not turn our head. We recognize that you appreciate honest, straightforward shoe merchandising, and your approval only spurs us to still greater efforts in your behalf.

This Opening was intended as an object lesson. It must have shown you beyond a doubt that we have not only a big new building, but that it is also filled from cellar to attic by the biggest stock of fresh, new full shoes in Washington. Now we are going to fill our salesroom as big as they are-with constant crowds of cratemers, a ve are sure these qualities and p rices will accomplsih it! The following Opening "Souvenir" Prices will continue till tomorrow night. Don't miss them!

VAN WYCK DAILY GAINING

Signs of a Complete Democratic Victory in New York.

HERO WORSHIP SUBSIDING

Marked Apathy Among Republicans in the Country Districts-Prospects of an Immense Majority in the City for the Syrncuse Ticket. Armies of Spenkers to Be Sent Out.

New York, Oct. 14.-There has neve been a time within recent political history in this State that the Democratic parthe election of its gubernatorial ticket ere has never been a time when the Republican party has been less concerned as to the results of the elections than exists just now. The sporadic effervescences of hero worship have given way to the more substantial element of good government of the State and the result is the rapidly growing impression that Col. Roosevelt will lack many thousands of a majority when the vote is cast next month. Judge Van Wyck will be the next governor of New York. The gamblers who, following the shouts and cheers echoing after the adjournment of the Saratoga convention, began to offer great odds on the election of the Rough Rider candidate, have had a sober second thought and are hedging as promptly as possible all their enthusiastic wagers on his suc-

The handwriting upon the political wall translation. Advices to Republican quarters here show not only apathy throug-out the State concerning the Republic cause, but absolute indifference.

Campaign of the Democrats. The Democrats have been making as aggressive campaign. The party has be ne united, and that union is quite a perfect as in 1882. The unity exists throughout the State and is very complet in the city. The exhibition of Judge Gay nor, Edward M. Shepard and Hugh Mc-Laughlin on the same platform is one of many evidences of this. The Democrats are claiming 80.000 plurality for Van Wyck in New York County, 18,000 in Kings and 2,000 in Richmond. This means 110,000 to be overcome on the city line.

How hadly the Republican campaign is lagging is shown by the fact that the Republican county committee here has not done a thing. The chairman, Mr. Quigg. is an invalid and is interested in his ow election to Congress. The only activit in his own district, where twenty meet ings a night are being arranged. Roosevelt's friends are beginning to say that if Tammany does not get 80,000 in this county it won't be the machine's fault. It was the knowledge of these things in this city that made much of yesterday's for Republicans to say the betting is for

Indications are not wanted to show that the Democratic ticket has not only the support of an almost solid front from the German voters in this city, but that the a play predicts its careful and artistic feelings against the anti-personal liberty presentation. feelings against the anti-personal liberty views of Col. the Catholic Young Men's National Union will be held in this city on October 25 and 26,

The union is made up of Catholic young country, and numbers about 50,000 memactively at work perfecting arrangements

Each of the clubs to be represented has elected three delegates and three alternates to represent their respective organizations at the meeting, which is called for the purpose of discussing various matters of interest to their fraternity. The delegates to represent Carroll Institute are Messrs. Ed. J. Hannan, Henry Sohon and John J. Dolan, with Messrs. John Henderson, John Quinn and B. J. Coyle as alternates.

The object of this union is the furtherance of practical Catholic unity and the moral and intellectual advancement of its The means relied on to accomplish this object are: The practice of religion by the members, the fraternal union of all associations aiming at the spiritual, intel-lectual and moral improvement of young men, and the mutual enlightenment and assistance from such unions. The local committee of arrangements consists of twenty-five gentlemen of the

The two days of the convention will be given up to pleasure and sightseeing when the delegates and members are not busy at the meetings or at the Catholic University. This year's gathering is of greater importance than usual, in con-s quence of the presentation of the Brownson statue to the Catholic University, which presentation will be conducted by the delegates of the club. The program for the convention, thus far complete, is as follows: Tuesday, October 25, a solemn high mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Church at 9:30 o'clock. The delegates will assemble at the Carroll Institute, and proceed to the church in a body. Immediately after the mass the delegation will adjourn to the Institute, and the convention will be call-Institute, and the convention will be called to order by the president of the union, Rev. William T. McGuirl, of Brooklyn. On Tuesday evening there will be an entertainment and luncheon. The program is now being arranged by George T. Cox, the secretary of the Washington branch of the union, and the chairman of the entertainment committee, and will include a minstrel show, recitations and vocal numbers. The entertainment will vocal numbers. The entertainment
